CAROLINE TRIMBLE - PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:

For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.

A Life of Love is a humble life where one gives without counting the cost. This Life is a life of giving – caring – compassion - sacrifice - in peace and love. Sadly, we often expect to receive some notoriety when we give – that which is publicly displayed or by our own mouths to boast. Our very social media world feeds that innate concupiscence that it is all about Me - and we believe it! It is in humility that one finds the better path - the way of the cross – the Life of Love! For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted – be humble and you will be exalted forever in eternity with God! Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us!

VOCATION CORNER:

Both the Book of Sirach and the Gospel of Luke today stress that we should live our lives in humble fashion. WOW! What a challenge. Yet, we are called each day to use our talents to glorify the Lord and spread His word. Are we humble enough to recognize the talents that we truly have? Are we also humble enough to set aside our egos and hear what God is truly calling us to do? Can we clean up after our kids without grumbling? Can we rise for work with a willing spirit? Can we set down our phone and pray for a moment that a young person might pursue a religious vocation?

2025 CATHOLIC SERVICE & MINISTRY APPEAL:

Hope in the Lord - Do you remember your or your children’s or, perhaps, your grandchildren’s first time away from home attending college? While greatly anticipated, it can also be a challenging, sometimes overwhelming experience. Today hundreds of young adults find a comfortable, secure, faith-based home during their college years as a “family” member of the Newman Catholic Student Center at Southern Illinois University. Your contribution to The Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal helps makes this experience possible. Partner with Newman’s students and staff by making your gift to The Appeal today!

A Prayer for Labor Day

On this weekend, when we rest from our usual labors, loving Father, we pray for all who shoulder the tasks of human labor—in the marketplace, in factories and offices, in the professions, and in family living.

We thank you, Lord, for the gift and opportunity of work; may our efforts always be pure of heart, for the good of others and the glory of your name.

We lift up to you all who long for just employment and those who work to defend the rights and needs of workers everywhere.

May those of us who are now retired always remember that we still make a valuable contribution to our Church and our world by our prayers and deeds of charity.

May our working and our resting all give praise to you until the day we share together in eternal rest with all our departed in your Kingdom as you live and reign Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

CAROLINE TRIMBLE, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:

For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted. A Life of Love is a humble life where one gives without counting the cost. This Life is a life of giving – caring – compassion - sacrifice - in peace and love. Sadly, we often expect to receive some notoriety when we give – that which is publicly displayed or by our own mouths to boast. Our very social media world feeds that innate concupiscence that it is all about Me - and we believe it! It is in humility that one finds the better path - the way of the cross – the Life of Love! For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted – be humble and you will be exalted forever in eternity with God! Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us!
