CAROLINE TRIMBLE, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:

Let us be pure of heart-it is the virtue of charity- so that the Kingdom of Heaven will be ours. How does one become pure of heart? What must one do to let charity overflow? If we are not wearing our Wedding garment- then we do not Love-period! It becomes obvious because our hearts become clouded – hard- and eventually darken. If uncharitable thoughts- words- and actions- come from our mouths more than -kindness- compassion- gratitude- we risk being tossed out of the Kingdom. What a mercy from God to give us time on this side of Heaven to make amends- to learn- seek- live- a Life of LOVE- to wear our Wedding garment. Our King- Jesus Christ- invites-over and over again! What is your response? Are you living a life that leads to the Kingdom of Heaven or the kingdom of darkness? Be pure in heart for the Kingdom of Heaven awaits! Journey onward every day with a pure heart- a heart of Love! Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us!

Have You Been Curiously Seeking More?

Are you or someone you know exploring the Catholic faith? Jesus invited His first disciples to "come and see" who He was. The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) is a welcoming, no-pressure journey of faith, discussion, and discovery. Who is OCIA for?

- Unbaptized adults wanting to learn about and join the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Christians from other denominations looking to enter full communion with the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who have not yet received the Sacraments of Confirmation or First Holy Communion.

There is no obligation or immediate commitment required—just an open door to ask questions, explore beliefs, and learn in a warm, supportive environment. Contact Caroline Trimble, Fr. Steven or Fr. Levi if you are interested in joining.

RESPECT LIFE CORNER:

 Stories of Hope – St. Louis Archdiocesan Abortion Healing Ministry, Abortion Healing Ministry is a beautiful example of the infinite love and mercy of Jesus Christ. We meet each person where they are and walk with them on the path to hope and healing. Women and men attend weekend retreats and participate in support groups. What a joy it is to see them receive the sacraments of Reconciliation and the Eucharist! It is truly a privilege to serve those suffering in silence to find hope, healing, and peace through Jesus Christ. If you or someone you know is suffering from the hidden wound of abortion, call/text 314-778-0628 or email us hopehealing@archstl.org. Visit our website for more information at <https://resources.archstl.org/article/998994/abortion-healing-ministry>. All communication is confidential, and we serve everyone, not only the St. Louis region.

VOCATION CORNER:

“Jesus, I’m done discerning.” This was my prayer in the back of a quiet chapel, the summer after graduating college. The Lord’s call to me as a child was strong and clear, but where and when were not. The many Holy Hours I’d spent wrestling with the mystery since had brought no clarity. My prayer continued, “I am spending all my energy discerning when all I really desire is to love you. So I am just going to love you and love you lavishly. I ask your Blessed Mother to make the rest abundantly clear.” Only later did I understand that perhaps it was what the Lord had been waiting for; for me to simply rejoice to be in relationship with Him, and to simply let myself be His. The lesson the Lord taught me that day remains ever new, even now after final vows. How much more beautiful is the journey when lived in the simplicity of his Love!” Sister Maria Lucia Stella Maris, Missionaries of the Word. Columbia Magazine Jul/Aug 2022

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS:

This week, please keep Christopher Berry in your prayers as he continues his formation at Saint Meinrad Seminary. As Christopher continues his journey of discernment and preparation for the priesthood, we invite you to pray that he remains open to God’s guidance and strengthened in faith, wisdom, and perseverance. Your prayers are an important part of supporting our seminarians as they grow in their vocation and prepare to serve the people of God. Want to send a note of encouragement? Christopher Berry, Saint Meinrad Seminary, 200 Hill Dr., St. Meinrad, IN 47577. Thank you for remembering Christopher in your prayers this week. The support of the faithful plays a vital role in fostering vocations and encouraging those who are answering God’s call with generous hearts. St. John Vianney, pray for us.

CAROLINE TRIMBLE, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:

Let us be pure of heart-it is the virtue of charity- so that the Kingdom of Heaven will be ours. How does one become pure of heart? What must one do to let charity overflow? If we are not wearing our Wedding garment- then we do not Love- period! It becomes obvious because our hearts become clouded – hard- and eventually darken. If uncharitable thoughts- words- and actions- come from our mouths more than -kindness- compassion- gratitude- we risk being tossed out of the Kingdom. What a mercy from God to give us time on this side of Heaven to make amends- to learn- seek- live- a Life of LOVE- to wear our Wedding garment. Our King- Jesus Christ- invites- over and over again! What is your response? Are you living a life that leads to the Kingdom of Heaven or the kingdom of darkness? Be pure in heart for the Kingdom of Heaven awaits! Journey onward every day with a pure heart- a heart of Love! Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us!

VOCATION CORNER:

"Jesus, I'm done discerning." This was my prayer in the back of a quiet chapel, the summer after graduating college. The Lord's call to me as a child was strong and clear, but where and when were not. The many Holy Hours I'd spent wrestling with the mystery since had brought no clarity. My prayer continued, "I am spending all my energy discerning when all I really desire is to love you. So I am just going to love you and love you lavishly. I ask your Blessed Mother to make the rest abundantly clear." Only later did I understand that perhaps it was what the Lord had been waiting for; for me to simply rejoice to be in relationship with Him, and to simply let myself be His. The lesson the Lord taught me that day remains ever new, even now after final vows. How much more beautiful is the journey when lived in the simplicity of his Love!"

Invitation to the Wedding Feast

I'M TOO BUSY. Imagine that you live in a great kingdom with a king and queen and many other great people. You hear that the king's son is going to get married and there will be a great wedding feast. All the lords and ladies and rich land owners are invited. On the day of the wedding the servants go out to call the guests to the wedding, but all those important people refuse to go! They say they are too busy with other things, and can't be bothered to go!

Now imagine that you are one of the children in a poor family that lives down a back street. Suddenly you hear people calling out that the king has invited your family to the feast! What excitement! Everybody puts on their best clothes and goes to the castle. In a little while the king comes in and you see him pointing to a man who isn't dressed neatly, and hasn't washed his face or brushed his hair. He sends the man out of the hall.

THE KING INVITES YOU TO HIS SON'S WEDDING!

This is the story that Jesus told about the kingdom of Heaven. Many important people have been invited, but they have decided that they were too busy with other things. But the King has invited us too! We should rejoice and "dress" our souls by being the best we can be! Don't be a half-hearted Christian!

Answer to front page: Everyone's invited! Answers to True or False: 1. false 2. true 3. true 4. false 5. true 6. true 7. true

The king sent his servants to call all the people in the street to his son's wedding. Follow the road on the map from the castle's courtyard all the way to the farmland. The people in the houses next to the road you pass are invited to the wedding.

You can colour in the houses if you like.
Who was invited to the feast?

Saint Seraphin

October 12

SAINT SERAPHIN NEVER DID ANYTHING GREAT OR IMPORTANT, BUT HE DID EVERYTHING WITH GREAT LOVE FOR GOD. HE TRIED TO BE LIKE SAINT FRANCIS IN HIS ZEAL AND LOVE OF THE POOR. LIKE SAINT SERAPHIN, WE CAN IMITATE THE SAINTS AND DO EVERY LITTLE THING OUT OF LOVE OF GOD.

True or False: Who is Invited to the Wedding?

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus compares the kingdom of Heaven to a king giving a wedding feast for his son. What happened in the story? See if you know which of these are true statements and which are false:

1. The first time the servants went out to call those who were invited, all the guests came. True or false?
2. When the king sent out the second group of servants, some people didn't come, but went off to their farms and businesses. True or false?
3. Some people mistreated and even killed the servants. True or false?
4. The king decided that nobody else was worthy to come to his son's wedding. True or false?
5. The king decided to send his servants out into the streets to call everyone to come to the wedding. True or false?
6. When the servants called the people in the streets, they all came and filled the banquet hall. True or false?
7. When the king came in to look at his guests and found one that wasn't dressed for the wedding, he had him thrown out of the place. True or false?
