CAROLINE TRIMBLE - PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:

Our Lord journeyed every day of His life towards Jerusalem – towards Calvary to embrace the cross. We too journey onto pathways that are filled with sorrows and crosses. There is no running from the cross - it must be embraced. One does not need to look very far to find the crosses of division – discord - loneliness – hardship – sickness - etc... A typical day pursuing social media showcases this point very well. While there is truly much hardship, there is a greater joy that is to be found – to be lived- to behold! Did you know that you have an internal compass that draws you towards God? This longing for God is where our soul wants to be – heaven is our HOME. Our Lord Jesus Christ bore the weight of our sins upon a cross that was not His – it was ours! There will be trials upon this earth, but when we unite them to the Cross of Calvary that bore the Son of Man - we will find a Life a flamed with God’s Love! I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing! Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us!

SISTERS IN CHRIST:

Our New Book will be, "The Story of the Soul" the life of St. Thérèse of Lisieux. In this short work, full of Thérèse's joyful spontaneity and fervor, you will discover the great themes of her spirituality, called the “Little Way”: joy and confidence, complete abandonment to God's merciful love, and her passion for the Church’s missions, for which she is the patron saint. If you are interested contact Janette Kocher or Caroline Trimble Pastoral Associate. The study will begin on Aug 19th.

PRIEST APPRECIATION:

Every fall The Messenger celebrates Priesthood Sunday and our diocesan priests with a special PRIEST APPRECIATION ISSUE. This year’s Priesthood issue falls on Sept. 11th. Our priests’ pastoral ministries affect people’s spiritual and personal lives in many ways, often at significant times: the baptism of children or adults; first Eucharist, confirmation, young couples preparing to be married in the church; visitations to a parishioner in the hospital or nursing home, receiving the anointing of the sick, a family funeral liturgy. These are all emotional times that can be made more meaningful or less difficult when a priest walks alongside a family or individual. To celebrate the ministry of priests in our diocese,

The Messenger invites parishioners to comment on how priests’ pastoral ministries affect their spiritual and personal lives or the parish community. Please send brief comments to: messenger@diobelle.org or email, text to Ashley. Deadline: 5pm on Thursday, August 28.

RESPECT LIFE CORNER:

“God’s love—individual, real, unchanging—is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather whose we are. Because his love will never change, nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives.” USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities “How to Build a Culture of Life”

VOCATION CORNER:

“When I was 7, my older sister joined the Society of Our Lady of the Most Holy Trinity and took the name Sister Celine. This sparked in me a deep curiosity about her religious vocation, which eventually led me to spend several weeks with her community in a remote island mission in the Bicol region of the Philippines. The conditions were stark; the area lacked electricity and clean water. Yet, I discovered extraordinary richness in the lives of the people. And, undiminished by material poverty, the SOLT sisters radiated joy that stemmed from their faith and dedication to serving others. During my stay, I felt an unprecedented sense of peace, as if enveloped by God’s love. I saw Jesus in the faces of those we served, each interaction revealing the transformative beauty and power of faith. Now, as a SOLT sister, I find fulfillment in living the Gospel’s message, witnessing to hope and the miracle of faith in action. Sr. Mary Louis Granadillos; Society of Our Lady of the most Holy Trinity; Columbia Magazine April 2025

2025 CATHOLIC SERVICE & MINISTRY APPEAL:

Hope in the Lord - Do you remember your or your children’s or, perhaps, your grandchildren’s first time away from home attending college? While greatly anticipated, it can also be a challenging, sometimes overwhelming experience. Today hundreds of young adults find a comfortable, secure, faith-based home during their college years as a “family” member of the Newman Catholic Student Center at Southern Illinois University. Your contribution to The Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal helps makes this experience possible. Partner with Newman’s students and staff by making your gift to The Appeal today!

CAROLINE TRIMBLE, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:
Our Lord journeyed every day of His life towards Jerusalem – towards Calvary to embrace the cross. We too journey onto pathways that are filled with sorrows and crosses. There is no running from the cross - it must be embraced. One does not need to look very far to find the crosses of division – discord - loneliness – hardship – sickness - etc. A typical day pursuing social media showcases this point very well. While there is truly much hardship, there is a greater joy that is to be found – to be lived- to behold! Did you know that you have an internal compass that draws you towards God? This longing for God is where our soul wants to be – heaven is our HOME. Our Lord Jesus Christ bore the weight of our sins upon a cross that was not His – it was ours! There will be trials upon this earth, but when we unite them to the Cross of Calvary that bore the Son of Man - we will find a Life a flamed with God's Love! I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing! Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us!

PRIEST APPRECIATION:

Every fall The Messenger celebrates Priesthood Sunday and our priests with a special PRIEST APPRECIATION ISSUE. This year's Priesthood issue falls on Sept. 11. Our priests' pastoral ministries affect people's spiritual and personal lives in many ways, often at significant times: the baptism of children or adults; first Eucharist, confirmation, young couples preparing to be married in the church; visitations to a parishioner in the hospital or nursing home, receiving the anointing of the sick, a family funeral liturgy. These are all emotional times that can be made more meaningful or less difficult when a priest walks alongside a family or individual. To celebrate the ministry of priests in our diocese, The Messenger invites parishioners to comment on how priests' pastoral ministries affect their spiritual and personal lives or the parish community. Please send brief comments to: messenger@diobelle.org or email, text to Ashley. Deadline: 5pm on Thursday, August 28.

RESPECT LIFE CORNER:

"God's love—individual, real, unchanging—is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather whose we are. Because his love will never change, nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "How to Build a Culture of Life"

VOCATION CORNER:

"When I was 7, my older sister joined the Society of Our Lady of the Most Holy Trinity and took the name Sister Celine. This sparked in me a deep curiosity about her religious vocation, which eventually led me to spend several weeks with her community in a remote island mission in the Bicol region of the Philippines. The conditions were stark; the area lacked electricity and clean water. Yet, I discovered extraordinary richness in the lives of the people. And, undiminished by material poverty, the SOLT sisters radiated joy that stemmed from their faith and dedication to serving others. During my stay, I felt an unprecedented sense of peace, as if enveloped by God's love. I saw Jesus in the faces of those we served, each interaction revealing the transformative beauty and power of faith. Now, as a SOLT sister, I find fulfillment in living the Gospel's message, witnessing to hope and the miracle of faith in action.
