CAROLINE TRIMBLE - PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:

Here is a simple question to ask and ponder: If you woke up today with the things you were grateful for yesterday, who or what would be there? This month offers so many extra moments to show our gratitude and love for one another. We honor Mothers, Graduates, Birthdays, Anniversaries, Sacraments and numerous other moments. These moments are often filled with the people we love and cherish with sharing of food, bursts of laughter, and love filling the air. How grateful are you for these moments? People? God? We are graced with this moment- this present moment- but we are not promised tomorrow. Embrace the moments and live a life of love with your words, thoughts, actions, and prayers. A life of love is a life that is of God and with God. If you woke up today with the things you were grateful for yesterday, who or what would be there? Be Grateful! Be Blessed! Love one another! Vocation Corner: May 18th

“Growing up in Nigeria, I was raised Catholic and served as an altar boy. Naturally, I felt drawn to the priesthood due to my closeness to the altar and my admiration for our parish priests. After attending minor seminary for high school, I entered college seminary but left after my first year to pursue another career. I came to the United States, intent on marrying and raising a family. But my soul was restless, and God had another plan. Providentially, I was contacted by the vocation’s director of the Josephites. And when I visited their seminary, I felt a peace and joy I had not known in many years. I returned to seminary, and one day on retreat, something happened that solidified my calling to the priesthood. As I prayed in the chapel, what appeared to be the image of Jesus in the monstrance was shown to me. I was terrified and in awe. It remains an indescribable experience, but it confirmed me in my vocation. I am so grateful for the privilege of being a priest.” Fr. Kingsley Ogbuji, Society of St. Joseph of the Sacred Heart; Washington, D.C. Columbia Magazine Sept. 2024

CAROLINE TRIMBLE, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:

Here is a simple question to ask and ponder: If you woke up today with the things you were grateful for yesterday, who or what would be there? This month offers so many extra moments to show our gratitude and love for one another. We honor Mothers, Graduates, Birthdays, Anniversaries, Sacraments and numerous other moments. These moments are often filled with the people we love and cherish with sharing of food, bursts of laughter, and love filling the air. How grateful are you for these moments? People? God? We are graced with this moment- this present moment- but we are not promised tomorrow. Embrace the moments and live a life of love with your words, thoughts, actions, and prayers. A life of love is a life that is of God and with God. If you woke up today with the things you were grateful for yesterday, who or what would be there? Be Grateful! Be Blessed! Love one another! Pray for one another! Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us!

*Lord Jesus,
Bless these children receiving Holy Communion for the first time. May this day be an initial step into the lifelong love of the Eucharist. Give them a hunger for this sacred food so that they turn to you for comfort, guidance, and wisdom as they grow into full discipleship. Thank you for their innocence and goodness. May their eagerness to receive Your Body and Blood inspire all of us to cherish this Sacred Sacrament. Amen!*

Congratulations!
