CAROLINE TRIMBLE, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:

*For where two or three are gathered together in my name,
there am I in the midst of them.*

We have an awesome God who always is present, and always faithful. What joyous words to know that God is with us in the ‘storms and trials’ of life. We only have to turn to Him, surrender it, and wait upon the Lord. So, when you pray, invite others to pray with you, ask your Guardian Angel to be with you and your Saint friends, and together call upon the name of our God and trust that He is here! If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. Live a life of prayer -it is a relationship of love. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. Our Lady of Sorrows, pray for us!

RESPECT LIFE CORNER:

Migration and Catholic Social Teaching “Persons have the right to find opportunities in their own homeland. When the conditions necessary for a dignified life are absent, persons have the natural right to migrate to support themselves and their family. More prosperous nations are obliged, to the extent they are able, to welcome those in search of the security and means of livelihood unavailable in their country of origin. Countries have the right to maintain their borders and regulate immigration consistent with the common good and with respect for the sanctity of human life. Refugees and asylum seekers should be afforded protection. The God-given dignity and rights of undocumented immigrants should be respected, and immigrants have a responsibility to respect the country that receives them.” USCCB

VOCATION CORNER:

As our country honors the gift of Labor this weekend, we can rejoice in the goodness of working for the Lord. Each one of us is called to spread the Word and promote our Catholic Church. This is the vocation of ALL of us. We can call upon St. Joseph the Worker to help us do this “work of the Lord”. We need to encourage our family members to be attentive to their call – their life’s work - maybe even to the priesthood, diaconate or religious life.

MESSENGER PRIEST APPRECIATION:
The Messenger celebrates Priesthood Sunday and our priests with a special PRIEST APPRECIATION ISSUE, which falls on Oct. 8, 2026. Our priests’ pastoral ministries affect people’s spiritual and personal lives in many ways, often at significant times: the baptism of children or adults; first Eucharist, confirmation, young couples preparing to be married; visitations to a parishioner in the hospital or nursing home, receiving the anointing of the sick, a family funeral liturgy. These are all emotional times that can be made more meaningful or less difficult when a priest walks alongside a family or individual. To celebrate the ministry of priests in our diocese, The Messenger invites parishioners to comment on how priests’ pastoral ministries affect their spiritual and personal lives or the parish community. Please send brief comments to: editor@bellevillemessenger.org. Deadline: 5pm, Thursday, Sept. 17

REMEMBER IN OUR PRAYERS: Rick Rennie, Judy Brown, Brenda Zuber, Valerie Weidner, Steve Zuber, Norma Kocher, Ralph McIntire, Franklin Hinterscher, Mary Rowark

On this Labor Day, we turn to St. Joseph and the child Jesus, who remind us of the dignity and sacredness of work. In our Catholic tradition, work is more than a way to earn a living—it is a way of sharing in God’s ongoing work of creation. Whether in an office, classroom, home, or in service to others, our labor becomes holy when it reflects love, justice, and care. As we celebrate today, let us also remember those burdened by unjust wages and inequality. May we commit ourselves to building workplaces rooted in dignity, fairness, and respect for every person.
St. Joseph the Worker, pray for us!

CAROLINE TRIMBLE, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:
For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.
We have an awesome God who always is present, and always faithful. What joyous words to know that God is with us in the ‘storms and trials’ of life. We only have to turn to Him, surrender it, and wait upon the Lord. So, when you pray, invite others to pray with you, ask your Guardian Angel to be with you and your Saint friends, and together call upon the name of our God and trust that He is here! If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. Live a life of prayer - it is a relationship of love. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. Our Lady of Sorrows, pray for us!

RESPECT LIFE CORNER: Migration and Catholic Social Teaching “Persons have the right to find opportunities in their own homeland. When the conditions necessary for a dignified life are absent, persons have the natural right to migrate to support themselves and their family. More prosperous nations are obliged, to the extent they are able, to welcome those in search of the security and means of livelihood unavailable in their country of origin. Countries have the right to maintain borders and regulate immigration consistent with the common good and with respect for the sanctity of human life. Refugees and asylum seekers should be afforded protection. The God-given dignity and rights of undocumented immigrants should be respected, and immigrants have a responsibility to respect the country that receives them.” USCCB

VOCATION CORNER:

As our country honors the gift of Labor this week-end, we can rejoice in the goodness of working for the Lord. Each one of us is called to spread the Word and promote our Catholic Church. This is the vocation of ALL of us. We can call upon St. Joseph the Worker to help us do this “work of the Lord”. We need to encourage our family members to be attentive to their call – their life's work - maybe even to the priesthood, diaconate or religious life.

INGRAHAM LABOR DAY TRACTOR PULL: September 7th from 9am-6pm. We will be looking for deserts, which can be dropped off that morning and ice cream buckets for the soup, which will be served 4pm-6pm for $20 gallon or by bowl at 3pm, in the Hall. Fish dinner will be prepared by the Fire

MESSENGER PRIEST APPRECIATION:

To celebrate the ministry of priests in our diocese, The Messenger invites parishioners to comment on how priests' pastoral ministries affect their spiritual and personal lives or the parish community for a Priesthood Sunday issue on October 8, 2026. Please send brief comments to: edi-tor@bellevillemessenger.org. Deadline: 5pm, Thursday, Sept. 17.

PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS:

The Diocese of Belleville is blessed with 11 seminarians who are discerning God's call to the priesthood. We will be featuring one seminarian each week and asking for your prayers as they continue their formation. This week, please pray for Cazmir Cozzi, who is attending Mundelein Seminary. Whether it's a Rosary, a decade, a Mass intention, or a simple prayer, your support helps strengthen our seminarians as they prepare to serve God's people. Want to send a note of encouragement? Casmir Cozzi, Mundelein Seminary, 1000 E. Maple Ave., Mundelein, IL 60060. Thank you for supporting vocations in the Diocese of Belleville. St. John Vianney, pray for us.

On this Labor Day, we turn to St. Joseph and the child Jesus, who remind us of the dignity and sacredness of work. In our Catholic tradition, work is more than a way to earn a living—it is a way of sharing in God's ongoing work of creation. Whether in an office, classroom, home, or in service to others, our labor becomes holy when it reflects love, justice, and care. As we celebrate today, let us also remember those burdened by unjust wages and inequality. May we commit ourselves to building workplaces rooted in dignity, fairness, and respect for every person.

St. Joseph the Worker, pray for us!

What should I do when somebody else sins?

In today's Gospel reading Jesus tells us that if someone sins against us we should quietly go and talk to them about it. Have you ever seen someone else do something bad? Did you talk to them about it?

I DON'T WANT TO BOTHER YOU, BUT I THINK YOU'RE
MAKING A MISTAKE!

WE REALLY WANT
YOU TO BE OUR FRIEND,
BUT YOU CAN'T KEEP LYING TO US!

When we talk to somebody about something bad they are doing we should do it with love. We aren't trying to make them feel bad; we're trying to help!

Has anyone ever told you when you were doing something wrong? Did you find it easy to listen to them? When we try to help people who do bad things, what God wants us to do is be kind to them and help them to turn away from their sins. It's hard to do, but it makes God so happy to see us helping people come back to Him!

Sometimes we see other people doing things that we know are wrong.

*When we see other people doing sins, does
Jesus want us to talk to them about it?*

Blessed Frédéric Ozanam

WE CAN LEARN FROM THE LIFE OF BLESSED FREDERIC THAT IT IS IMPORTANT TO DISCUSS THE FAITH WITH PEOPLE, BOTH THOSE WHO CAN HELP US AND THOSE WE CAN HELP. BUT WE ALSO LEARN THAT JUST TALKING ISN'T ENOUGH. WE HAVE TO ACT, TO BE CHARITABLE LIKE CHRIST WAS AS WELL.

What is Our Lord asking us to do?

AGAIN, AMEN, I SAY to YOU, if two of you AGREE on EARTH about ANYTHING for WHICH they are to PRAY, it SHALL be GRANTED to them by my HEAVENLY FATHER. For WHERE TWO or THREE are GATHERED TOGETHER in my NAME, THERE am I in the MIDST of them.

Dear First Grade Families

This year, we continue our tradition to support the work of parents as the primary catechists of their children.

Our parishes will offer all of our first-grade students

The Red Blessing Plate weekend of September 12-13 at your parish.

Your first-grade student will be called forward during Mass for the blessing and to receive a plate.

The Red Blessing Plate - A Family Tradition

Whenever someone in your family does something noteworthy or something in which to take pride, her/his dinner is served on THE RED PLATE.

Such special moments can be either big or small. You might celebrate, for example: a good report card, a new job, a job well done, First Communion, an award, a birthday, etc.

You might also want to take a picture each time you celebrate such a special moment!
